Dear Mr. Checole:

This concerns a notice of mandatory deposit for two copies of 65 titles of works published by Africa World Press.

Under section 407 of the copyright law, the owner of copyright or of the exclusive right of publication of a work published under copyright protection in the United States is required to deposit in the Copyright Office two complete copies of the best edition of the work for the use or disposition of the Library of Congress. Failure to comply makes you liable to penalties prescribed by the copyright law, including a fine of up to $250 per work and payment to the Library of the total retail price of the copies claimed.

On June 24, 2005, the Copyright Acquisitions Division of the Copyright Office, mailed a formal demand to Africa World Press to deposit two copies of sixty-six titles being distributed in the United States. On August 17, 2005 a reminder letter was mailed, and on September 29, 2005 a follow-up letter was sent. The follow-up letter eliminated one of the titles because it was already in the collections. On November 1, 2005, Eileen Lowry, Copyright Acquisitions Specialist, contacted your office by telephone regarding your company's noncompliance with the demands which had been issued. Two more titles were eliminated from the demand because they were in the collections, leaving 63 titles open. On November 8, 2005, a final demand for the 63 titles was sent by certified mail.

Additionally, demands for two other titles distributed by Africa World Press are now overdue. The work POPULIST DIMENSION TO AFRICAN POLITICAL THOUGHT: ESSAYS IN RECONSTRUCTION AND RETRIEVAL, by P.L.E. Idahosa was demanded on May 5, 2005, with follow-ups sent September 13, 2005 and November 8, 2005. The work SWAHILI MODERNITIES: CULTURE, POLITICS, AND IDENTITY ON THE EAST COAST OF AFRICA, edited by Pat Caplan and Farouk Topan, was demanded on April 19, 2005, with follow-ups sent September 13, 2005 and November 8, 2005.

On February 3, 2006, the case file on the 65 titles was referred to the General Counsel's Office for enforcement of the mandatory deposit requirement. I have reviewed the file in this case, and have concluded that you are obligated to deposit as you have been requested. While the case can be referred to the U.S. Department of Justice at this time, I am writing this last letter in the hope that this inconvenience to you and to the government can be avoided.

The mandatory deposit provision enables the Library of Congress to serve as one of the leading archives of cultural history in the world. The sixty-five titles covered in this demand have been identified as works which would be important additions to the Library's collections.

To expedite processing and forestall referral to the U.S. Justice Department, the copies should be accompanied by one of the enclosed pink copies of the shipping instructions. Additionally, please use the enclosed mailing labels so you will be given proper credit for making the required deposit. If we do not receive the requested deposit within four weeks, the case file will be forwarded to the Justice Department.

We look forward to receiving the titles which have been demanded.

Sincerely yours,
